

NORTH CAROLINA System of Care

What's Up Breakfast Series

Target Audience

- School Social Workers, Nurses & Counselors; Judges, Attorneys, Court Counselors; Mental Health & Substance Abuse Providers; Families; Child Welfare Workers; Guardian Ad Litem; CDSA, Pre-K and Childcare Staff; Any Other Child Serving Agency Staff

What's Up Breakfast Networking is designed to keep child-serving staff and families up-to-date about resources and emerging services as well as an opportunity to announce activities within agencies. The 8:30 – 10:30 a.m. format allows time for networking/breakfast; program presentations and announcements. For information please contact Chandrika Brown: cbrown@ncfamiliesunited.org or Stephanie Jones: stephaniej.jones@cardinalinnovations.org

Supporting Families of LGBTQ+ Youth Part 2

An interactive primer of LGBTQ+ history, policy, and resources. Designed to support families and community members engage with LGBTQ+ youth while improving outcomes and wellbeing. Learn ways to have difficult and developmentally appropriate conversations around gender, sexual orientation, and sexuality while reducing risk of violence and shame. Discuss strategies to increase acceptance and resiliency in LGBTQ+ youth. Identify national and local resources to keep the dialogue going in empowering ways.

Date/Time: February, 6th at 8:30 A.M Breakfast / 9:00 A.M. Presentations

Location: Chatham County Library Conference Room, 197 NC-87 Pittsboro, NC 27312

Agenda: Breakfast – Sponsored by Daymark Recovery Services, Renaissance Wellness Services, and Communities In Schools Chatham County

Presenter: Erich Priest of Freedom House Recovery